

I love my xm radio. As I pay for this service I do not understand why you would prohibit them from offering services to their clients. It is no different then cable tv.

I travel for work & am constantly in my car. I rely on the information I get through my xm radio,

Please reject the NAB's petition 04-160.

Thank you for your consideration.

Julie Meltzer